ANNOUNCING ATTENDANCE AT APMP 2018

From November 20th - 30th, 2018, Guildline will be attending the Asia Pacific Metrology Programme General Assembly in the exciting city of Singapore. Along with exhibiting at this esteemed conference, Guildline is pleased to be participating in workshops.

APMP 2018 will be host to tutorials and training about new and developing technology, as well as important conversations about the redefinition of the International System of Units (SI). In its 34th year, the Asia Pacific Metrology Programme will again connect experts in the field of Metrology and provide a forum for specialized and professional dialogue.

As a world leader in Metrology, Guildline is looking forward to being a part of APMP 2018.
